Pilot Season: Your Big Break Awaits on ManyVids!

This April, ManyVids is launching into uncharted territories with our first-ever Pilot Season—a groundbreaking initiative designed to spotlight your creativity and bring fresh, original content to the forefront of the adult content creation world. Have you been nurturing a brilliant idea for a show? It's time to take center stage and let your creativity soar. We're not just watching; we're ready to green light your next big safe-for-work project!

What's Pilot Season All About?

Pilot Season runs from April 1st to April 30th and it's all about discovering and elevating new SFW shows that captivate and entertain. This is your golden opportunity to pitch your show directly to the ManyVids community and see it come to life with full production support. Here's how to make your mark:

- Upload Your Pilot: Creators are invited to upload new pilot episodes of their SFW shows to ManyVids using the category tag "SFWpilot" during the promo period. Whether it's a concept that's been brewing in your mind or a show you've already launched elsewhere, as long as it's new to ManyVids and SFW, it's eligible.
- Safe-for-Work Focus: Your profile must feature a minimum of 5 safe-for-work videos to qualify. We're looking for content that broadens the scope of creativity and appeal on our platform.
- Promote Your Show: Take to Twitter or Instagram to share a short clip or teaser of your show. Use the hashtag #SFWpilot and tag @ManyVids to ensure your submission gets noticed. The promotion isn't just about participation; it's about building buzz and excitement around your creative vision.
- Win Big: ManyVids will select the most compelling pilot videos and green light a full order of new episodes, offering financial backing to bring your vision to life. This is your chance to transition from creator to showrunner, with ManyVids supporting your journey every step of the way.
